Foreword

I am pleased to present the Annual Report of the Boundary Commission for Wales for the financial year 2019-20.

The main activities during 2019-20 were centred around the preparation for the 2023 review of parliamentary constituencies which will begin in 2021. The Commission has also conducted a review of the 2018 review of parliamentary constituencies and has implemented the recommendations of that review as it looks to prepare for the next review of parliamentary constituencies.

With no active review work taking place, this has been a quiet year for the Commission. During the year we worked closely with and provided information to the Cabinet Office regarding the new legislation that is currently being debated in Parliament. This new legislation may have a significant impact on the next review of parliamentary constituencies which is due to start in 2021.

As I was only appointed Deputy Chair on 23 June 2020, the work that is being reported on here was carried out under the auspices of my predecessor Mr Justice Lewis. I have however been assured of the accuracy of the contents of the report by the two continuing Commission Members, Mr Paul Loveluck and Professor Robert McNabb.

The Hon Mrs Justice Jefford
Deputy Chair

1. Introduction

The Sponsor

1.1 The Boundary Commission for Wales is an advisory Non-Departmental Public Body sponsored and wholly funded by the Cabinet Office (CO). The Commission submits reports to the Minister for the Cabinet Office and it is the Minister's statutory duty to lay them before Parliament. Where the report recommends that alterations are required to Parliamentary constituency boundaries the Minister for the Cabinet Office must also lay before Parliament the draft of an Order in Council for giving effect to the Commission's recommendations. The Lord Chancellor appoints the Deputy Chairman, the Minister for the Cabinet Office appoints the members of the Commission, the Assistant Commissioners, and the Secretary to the Commission (see Membership below).

The Commission

1.2 The Commission is constituted under section 2 and schedule 1 of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 (as amended). It is an independent, non-political, and totally impartial body. The Commission does not take political factors into account and the effects of the Commission's recommendations on future voting patterns are not considered.

1.3 With effect from 1 January 2002, officials of the Secretariat to the Local Democracy and Boundary Commission for Wales (LDBCW)¹, located in Cardiff, have also staffed the Secretariat of the Boundary Commission. Although accommodation and some staff resources are shared the two Commissions operate independently from each other.

Membership

1.4 The Speaker of the House of Commons is the ex-officio Chair of all four Parliamentary Boundary Commissions in the United Kingdom. The appointment of the Speaker emphasises the independence, impartiality, and non-political nature of the Commissions. The Speaker plays no part in the conduct of reviews. The Deputy Chair, who presides over the meetings, is a High Court Judge: The Honourable Mr Justice Lewis (term ended 31 December 2019). The Members are Mr Paul Loveluck and Professor Robert M^cNabb.

¹ The name was changed from the Local Government Boundary Commission for Wales by the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013.

- 1.5 The Commissioners are part-time appointees who meet whenever the work programme demands. Since the passing of the Boundary Commissions Act 1992, the Commission Members (not including the Deputy Chair) have been paid a daily fee agreed by the Sponsor Department with HM Treasury for work carried out on behalf of the Commission and, with the Deputy Chair, are entitled to recover any expenses (such as travel and subsistence) incurred on Commission work.
- 1.6 The Commission has established both a Code of Practice and a Register of Members' Interests, which are updated annually. Copies of these documents are available on request.
- 1.7 The Commission has two statutory assessors. One is the Statistics Board (represented by the National Statistician), and the other is the Director General of Ordnance Survey. Both are represented by designated deputies at Commission meetings.
- 1.8 The Minister for the Cabinet Office also appoints a Secretary to the Commission. Under the joint Secretariat arrangements, the Secretary, Mrs Shereen Williams is also the Chief Executive of the LDBCW.
- 1.9 The role of the Secretariat is to service and assist the Commissioners in the conduct of their reviews and in executing their decisions. The Secretariat is based at the offices of the Secretariat to the LDBCW in Cardiff and liaison about staffing and accommodation takes place with the Cabinet Office and Welsh Government. This working relationship is covered by a memorandum of understanding between the two Commissions and their respective sponsor bodies and the MOU will be reviewed in 2019/20 as part of an exercise by the Commission reviewing all of its framework agreements.

Statutory Duties

- 1.10 The Commission's primary statutory function is to keep under continuous review the distribution of seats at Parliamentary elections, to conduct regular reviews of the boundaries of Parliamentary constituencies and to make reports with recommendations to the Minister for the Cabinet Office in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 (as amended).
- 1.11 The Parliamentary Voting System and Constituencies Act 2011 made substantial changes to the legislation governing the distribution of Parliamentary seats.
- 1.12 The Act also removed the link between the Parliamentary constituencies and those of the National Assembly for Wales.
- 1.13 The Electoral Registration and Administration Act 2013 amended the Parliamentary Voting System and Constituencies Act 2011. This changed the date which the Commission is required to report its recommendations to Parliament before 1 October 2023.
