1. Introduction

The Boundary Commission for Wales (BCW) has adopted the principle that in the conduct of public business in Wales it will treat the Welsh and English languages on a basis of equality.

The Commission are responsible for the approval of this report; its drafting was undertaken by the Secretary, Mrs Shereen Williams. The report has been prepared in accordance with the Welsh Language Commissioner's guidance for annual reports.

The Commission's Secretariat is shared by agreement with our sister organisation, the Local Democracy and Boundary Commission for Wales (LDBCW) and comprises 12 employees. Because of this joint working arrangement, the BCW have adopted the Welsh language Standards that apply to the LDBCW and it is on that basis that this report has been produced.

The BCW is an advisory Non Departmental Public Body sponsored and funded by the Cabinet Office (CO). The Commission holds its meetings at its Offices in Cardiff, and is supported by a Secretariat (that also supports the LDBCW). The BCW is constituted under schedule 1 to the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 with the following membership:

Chair	The Speaker of the House of Commons
Deputy Chair	A Judge of the High Court appointed by the Lord Chancellor
Two Commissioners	Appointed by the Secretary of State
Assessor	The Registrar General for England and Wales
Assessor	The Director General of Ordnance Survey
Secretary	Officer appointed by the Secretary of State to head the Secretariat

The BCW's function is to keep under continuous review the representation of the people of Wales in the House of Commons. Specifically, the 1986 Act (as amended) requires the Commission to conduct a general review of all the Parliamentary constituencies every five years.

When conducting a review, the BCW is required to publish recommendations, to invite representations about the proposals, and to take any representations into account. The Commission must hold at least two and not more than five Public Hearings in Wales.

At the end of a review, the Commission must submit its final recommendations to the Secretary of State in a report that they are required to lay before Parliament together with a draft Order in Council giving effect to the Commission's recommendations, either with or without modifications. If modifications are proposed, the Secretary of State must lay a statement of reasons for those modifications. If approved by Parliament, the Order is submitted to be made by Her Majesty in Council. After the Order in Council has been made, the new constituency boundaries take effect at the following general election.

2. Overview of 2018-19

The focus for 2018 – 19 was to ensure the Commission’s continued compliance with the Welsh Language Standards, with a focus on service delivery as well as building on the momentum of the work that was carried out in 2017 – 18.

During the year, the Commission has been successful in increasing the number of Welsh speaking staff and this has enabled the Commission to improve its ability to provide an effective Welsh Language service to its stakeholders.

The Commission undertook a significant ICT transformation project during the year and ensured that the new system enabled on-going compliance with the Welsh Language Standards particularly in relation to the intranet and publications in the public domain.

During the year no complaints were raised about the Commission’s operation of the standards.

3. Operation of Standards

Service Delivery Standards

In terms of correspondence, all of the procedural letters and e-mails sent out as part of the reviews process have been produced in both Welsh and English and sent out at the same time. For other items of correspondence, a language preference system has been implemented. Where a preference is not known correspondence is produced in Welsh and English. The Commission continues to maintain a database that records the language preference of individuals that we correspond with. (Standard numbers 1 to 7).

Procedures in respect of answering the main telephone number are in operation and this has been maintained in 2018 – 19. (Standard numbers 8 to 22).

Procedures in respect of the necessary arrangements for holding meetings are in operation. When organising meetings, the Commission also works collaboratively with other public bodies who are subject to Welsh Language standards i.e. local authorities. (Standard numbers 24 to 30).

No public events were held by the Commission during the year (Standard numbers 31 to 34).

All documents produced for public use were published in both Welsh and English at and the same time (Standard numbers 36, 44 and 45).

No forms that were made available to the public were produced during the year (Standard numbers 46 to 47).

All of the pages on the Commission’s web site are fully functional and available in both Welsh and English (Standard numbers 48, 51 and 52).

Social media usage is in both Welsh and English (Standard number 54 and 55).

All signs and notices have been produced in Welsh and English to the required standard. (Standard numbers 57 to 59, 65 and 66).

The increase in the number of the Welsh speaking staff in the Commission has enabled the Commission to provide a Welsh language reception service when required (Standards number 61)

All contract material was produced in Welsh and English and the appropriate handling procedures were followed (Standards numbers 72, 73, 75 and 76).

No new Welsh language service and no change of corporate identity occurred during the year (Standards numbers 77 to 79).

In respect of publicising the service delivery standards that apply to the Commission and how they are to be complied with, these can be found in the LDBCW Welsh Language Standards Policy and Procedures document which is published on the LDBCW web site and is available at the office. (Standard numbers 149 and 153).

The LDBCW's Welsh Language Complaints Policy is available on the web site and is available in the office. (Standard numbers 150 to 151).

This document constitutes the Commission's annual report in respect of service delivery standards (Standard number 152).

No requests for information in respect of service delivery standards were requested by the Welsh Language Commissioner during the year (Standard number 154).

Policy Making Standards

No new policies or revisions of existing policies have occurred during the year that required the undertaking of a Welsh Language Policy Impact Assessment (Standards numbers 84 to 89).

No new research was undertaken or commissioned during the year (Standards numbers 91 to 93).
