Following their removal as Commissioners of the Local Government Boundary Commission for Wales, Mr. Paul Wood and Mr. John Bader have indicated their intention to resign as Commissioners of the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for Wales as soon as new Commissioners can be appointed.

Their resignations are not connected in any way with the work of the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for Wales.

Steps are being taken to appoint new Commissioners to the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for Wales as soon as possible.

As a consequence, the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for Wales plans to publish its initial proposals for the 2013 Review of Parliamentary Constituencies in January 2012. The Parliamentary Commission expects to complete the 2013 Review within the time stipulated by Parliament.

Mr. Justice Lloyd Jones, Deputy Chairman of the Parliamentary Boundary Commission for Wales, has expressed his warm appreciation of the outstanding contribution made by Mr. Wood and Mr. Bader to the work of the Parliamentary Commission.
